The Acorn Programme
Sharing Practice & Recent Publications

- McFetridge (in press), Therapy beyond Walls; the clinical psychologist’s multi-level work within an open psychiatric ward. In Turel, Grinshpoon & Siglag (eds.) The Practice of Clinical Psychology in the Psychiatric Hospital.

Publications in peer-review Journals (selected):

Presentations at Scientific Conference (selected):

- McFetridge (2017) Interventions for Complex Trauma in Adults. (Invited speaker) Annual Conference of the Crisis, Disaster and Trauma section of the British Psychological Society; London.

• Two papers presented at British and Irish Group for the study of Personality Disorder (BIGSPD) 16th Annual Conference, Leeds, UK.
    Jackson H & Hardwick C A self-evaluation by service users of a post-therapy transitional group.pptx o McFetridge & Crooke (2015), It's been a while, how's life? Inviting former clients to reflect and commune.
    https://www.researchgate.net/publication/306057179_It%27s_been_a_while_how%27s_life_Inviting_former_clients_to_reflect_and_commune_Paper_presented_to_BIGSPD_annual_conference_Leeds_University_2015

• Beynon-Pindar (2013) 'It’s not just sitting and breathing': a straightforward guide to mindfulness. Workshop delivered at the College of Occupational Therapists 37th Annual Conference and Exhibition, Glasgow, UK.

• Pindar (2012) Dissociation: The next diagnosis of exclusion or a need for extra consideration? Paper presented at Delivering Effective DBT Implementation Conference, Northampton, UK

• Pindar (2012) Mindfulness and occupation: both the path and the destination. Poster presented at the College of Occupational Therapists 36th Annual Conference and Exhibition, Glasgow, UK.
Other presentations:

- Jones & Ward (2014), “Attachment to Therapeutic Communities”, Institute of Mental Health Annual Research Day: Nottingham, UK.