

Therapeutic Environments: a joint exploration of research with The Retreat and The Institute of Mental Health
Monday 29 June 2015

9:45 – 10:00	Registration (A floor corridor) & Refreshments (A07)
10:00 – 10:15	Welcome Professor Paul Crawford, University of Nottingham
10:15 – 11:00	Keynote Speaker Dr Rex Haigh, Positive Environments Framework, Royal College of Psychiatrists What is the 'Big Question' in therapeutic environments: where is our Higgs' Boson?
11:00 – 12:00	Research Presentations Jenelle Clarke, The Institute of Mental Health "We are 24-7 therapy: The importance of everyday social interactions in TC's" Mark McFetridge, Helen Crooke, The Retreat, and Clare Hardwick and Hannah Jackson "In a Nutshell; does the Acorn work then?"
12:00 – 12:15	Refreshment Break (A07) and Poster Presentations (A06)
12:15– 13:15	Open Forum Discussion Future collaborations between The Retreat and The Institute of Mental Health
13:15 – 13:45	Lunch (A floor corridor) and Poster Presentations (A06)
13:45 – 14:45	Research Presentations Fiona Birkbeck, University of Nottingham "Truth, Lies and Propaganda" Michelle Potts, Stephanie Petty and Dan Anderson, The Retreat "Where is the emotion in dementia?"
14:45 – 15.30	Keynote Speaker Professor Justine Schneider, University of Nottingham "Inside Out of Mind and Today is Monday short video clips"
15.30 – 16.00	Closing Remarks Professor Nick Manning, Kings College London

Your feedback is very important to us – please help us to continue to improve the event experience at The Institute by completing the evaluation form.